Appreciative Inquiry (AI) is a strengths-based process for building teamwork, trust and collaboration, enhancing employee engagement, generating a spirit of creativity and innovation, and ensuring results oriented commitment to a shared mission, vision and strategy. It is a proven methodology for leading positive change in organizations and communities.

This workshop (formerly known as the Foundations of Appreciative Inquiry) is the first step in learning to use Appreciative Inquiry to make a positive difference in your organization, community or the world.

It will help you:

- Transform conversations from complaints to commitments;
- Create an emotionally positive, life affirming organization culture and leadership style;
- Ensure success of technical change by engaging people from the start;
- Establish processes for collaboration and process improvement;
- Create a culture of service excellence and partnership with customers, patients and clients;
- Engage multiple stakeholders in strategic planning and transformation.

In this 4.5-day highly experiential workshop you will learn both the principles and practices of Appreciative Inquiry. You will learn how to: form a core team; articulate a change agenda; select affirmative topics; mobilize appreciative interviews; envision and enact positive futures; and support innovation teams to deliver on the promise of your change agenda.

Learn how Appreciative Inquiry brings out the best of people and builds energy, focus and momentum for positive change.

Register now and join thousands of leaders and consultants around the world who have taken this workshop and are using Appreciative Inquiry to lead positive change in health care, education, religious, military, business, athletic, community and government organizations. Bring your team to optimize the impact of positive change in your organization.
