

Appreciative Leadership Development Program

CPC Founder Diana Whitney will be leading this 4-day program (ALDP) program. The ALDP program is for and about you: how you develop and use your leadership skills and how you bring out the best in those around you. It gives you space, time and support to mobilize your own creative potential – along with the insight, skill and confidence to unleash positive power among those you lead.

In our retreat-like setting you will:

- Discover and build upon your leadership strengths and skills through an Appreciative Inquiry-based 360° feedback, one-on-one coaching and personal reflection
- Discover the leadership benefits of inquiry, inclusion and integrity
- Learn how to illuminate and inspire the best of people and situations
- You will be introduced to and experience five core appreciative leadership strategies: inquiry into strengths, values and positive possibilities; inclusion of others in co-creating the future; illumination of the best of people and situations; inspiring hope for the future; and demonstrating relational integrity.
- Now is the time to affirm your leadership, appreciate the results you have achieved, and commit to the positive future that awaits you.

Diana Whitney is a global social entrepreneur. She is founder and president emeritus of Corporation for Positive Change, a global consulting cooperative; a founder of the Taos Institute, an international think tank dedicated to relational processes in business, education, families and communities; and a founding advisor to the United Religions Initiative, a global network of 530 interfaith cooperation circles working for peace and social justice. Diana Whitney's legacy is apparent in the hundreds of thousands of people worldwide who work, live and lead using Appreciative Inquiry. She is described as one of the top five thought leaders in the field, forging a positive revolution that is radically transforming knowledge, understanding and practices in human organizing, leadership, and management – for the good of the people.
